Spring Into Reading Party at
Erving Elementary School for all ages!

With storyteller & musician John Porcino. This story-walks throughout the school and you will be able to decorate your own Spring cookie

➤ Read-A-Thon update

The challenge was for the entire school to read 25,000 minutes and all together we read 61,012 minutes--so Mr. Trill will get ooblecked!

During the three weeks of the Read-A-Thon, 1st, 2nd, & 4th graders went to the Senior/Community Center to read and there were classroom visits with some of our Town Hall employees. A special thanks goes out to Jacquie Boyden, Richard Newton and Earlene Harold for coming to EES, with assistance from Bryan Smith and Betsy Sicard.

PTO parent Kate Gaudet created a wonderful mural for the front hall, a giant box of "Sweet Reads" to which our students added their favorite book titles. Finally, thanks to the Erving Public Library for hosting "cozy reads" during the Feb. vacation week, when families came to read with Ms. Urban and have a hot cocoa snack, thanks to the PTO. Congratulations to everyone and thanks to the PTO for working with Ms. Urban and to Mr. Trill for being such a good sport!
